1.3.2 South African Patient Information Leaflet

- A clinically approved patient information leaflet is not available at present. A full safety update including a proposed PIL will be submitted once the applicant change has been approved and commercialisation of the product is planned.